7th International Conference on Evidence-based Policy in Long-term Care

Bilbao
Bizkaia Spain

12 – 14
September 2024

Dear colleagues,

We are delighted to announce that 7th International Conference on Evidence-based Policy in Long-term Care will be held between 12th and 14th September 2024 in Bilbao, Bizkaia, Spain. We are very excited for the ILPN conference to be hosted by the Government of Biscay and are sure that Bilbao will prove a highly enjoyable and welcoming environment for all participants.

As always, the 7th ILPN conference will offer an opportunity to debate with international academics, policy makers and other experts all key long-term care policy questions, including:

International comparison of care models

Workforce and the role of migrant care workers

Policy implications of dementia and other consequences of ageing societies

Organisation, delivery, funding and regulation of long-term care services

Design of long-term care instruments and policies

Interaction between ageing and inequality

Digitalisation and ageing, chances and challenges of new technologies for long-term care

Provision and support of informal care

More information will be posted soon.

The call for abstracts and sessions will be announced in January 2024.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Bilbao for the ILPN conference 2024!
